

Above: This is the same house as detailed on page 10 and it is believed the lady in the doorway is Lucy Masters, wife of Joseph and that the picture was taken between 1901 and 1909. Lucy died in 1910 and Joseph in 1929.

Below left: May Bennett pictured in the 1950's seated outside the Red Lion public house. The grass area was the last remnant of the village green and is now occupied by shops and a small car park. In the background of the photograph, the pumps at Masters garage can be clearly seen next to The Woolpack PH at the crossroads.

Below right: Fred Bennett was featured as the 'oldest paper boy' on page 20 of booklet 7 in this series and this is a clearer picture of him.
